SENIORS

ELIZABETH MITCHELL
"ELIZABETH"

Age 16; Height 5′ 6½″; Weight 122

"Be good sweet maid and let who will be clever"

Elizabeth is good to look upon but as for the rest she's—just Elizabeth. Elizabeth is one of the few of the class with a "steady" and maybe that accounts for the neglect of her lessons with which she is sometimes charged. Elizabeth's heart yearns for sunny California but she hopes the sun won't freckle her face more.

ROGER TEMPLE MACK
"NAVY"

Age 17; Height 5′ 8½″; Weight 148

"Not tied unto the world with care"

Athletic Association 2, 4; Blackwell Literary Society 2, 4; Glee Club; Hi-Y Club 4; Assistant Business Manager MESSENGER 4.

Roger is another member of our class that has completed the four years' work in three years and a summer. Roger will be long remembered for his care-free habits, good nature and his peculiar accent. Roger is a good old boy and we hope to see much of him later. His pet abomination is anything that takes work to do. His favorite dish is "weenies" and his favorite activity is sleeping. His ambition is to get a college diploma.

REBECCA W. CAMERON
"BECK"

Age 18; Height 5′ 2″; Weight 106

"A violet by a mossy stone, half-hidden from the eye."

President Girls Council, 4; Glee Club, 4; Cornelia Spencer Literary Society, 4; Blue Triangle, 4.

Rebecca is quiet but "still waters run deep." She is steadfast and dependable and does excellent work in her studies. Her favorite dish is chicken salad and her highest ambition is to make a success in life.

ELLA BOONE DICKSON
"DAUGHTER"

Age 17; Height 5′ 3″; Weight 128

"Her face is a letter of recommendation and her heart a letter of credit."

Blue Triangle, 4; Cornelia Spencer Literary Society 3, 4; Secretary Class, 3.

Ella is "Daughter" to all of us. She has been with us four years and though she has not attempted to leave a brilliant record behind she graduates with the love of all her classmates. Her favorite dish is fruit salad and her highest ambition is to finish school.

Athle

3, 4; Bla
Club, 2, 3,

Leonard is by nature a good when we meet him. If will always know him. He is of the type, always full of pep and talk, and and far between moments of seriousness lurking smile. Leonard's favorite dish is so ing his pet abomination, and his favorite baseball. His ambition is to become a millionaire.

Sudie Williams Murray
"SUE"

Age 16; Height 5′ 4″; Weight 127

"Behold, a very proper person"

Certificate of distinction

Sudie is another rather quiet girl—at least around school. She is a good student, especially on Latin. "Sue" desires to become a movie star and we all hope that she shall succeed. She has the same abomination as the majority of others—Mr. Holton's history exams. Her favorite activity is dancing with (?) and afterwards having some potato salad to eat.

William Graham Carrington
"BILL"

Age 17; Height 5′ 10″; Weight 125

"As prone to mischief as able to perform it"

Bill is a fine fellow, as fine as you can ever find. He does not remain serious long enough for anyone to catch on to his real nature. He has plenty of school spirit, always supporting all the athletic contests by his presence. His pet abomination is study, and he tells us that his ambition is to get "A's" on English. Sauerkraut is his favorite dish while checkers is his favorite activity.

...ating, his favorite dish is lost and his ambi-
... become an electrical engineer.

Lida Mae Dunnegan
"LIZA"

Age 17; Height 5′ 6″; Weight 115

"The life but speaks the true heart within"

"Liza" is so quiet and reserved that you would not know she was around if it were not for her brilliant recitations in Geometry class. She is a very good Latin and French student as well. Lida has a saintly face and religious inclinations. She desires to be a missionary in some far field. Her pet abomination is studying History when taught by Mr. Holton. Her favorite dish is ice cream and her favorite activity playing tennis.

William Duncan Byrd
"BILL"

Age 20; Height 5′ 6″; Weight 135

"Thy modesty is a candle to thy merit"

Athletic Association, 3, 4; Baseball, 4; Orchestra, 4; Co-operative Class.

Bill has never been accused of being an angel, but he possesses a wonderful spirit, which, no doubt, in a place like this can perform more than an angel ever could. Bill will be remembered in D. H. S. for his beautiful saxophone music and his baseball playing. By his quiet, unobtrusive ways, his loyal devotion to duty, and his kindly good nature, Bill has won the admiration of the faculty and student body. Bill says that his favorite dish is egg salad, History, his pet abomination, and his ambition, to become an electrical engineer.

ELSIE BEAVERS
"BILL"

Age 16; Height 5′; Weight 108

"If any star shed peace, 'tis thou"

Glee Club; Cornelia Spencer Literary Society, 4; Critic; President Blue Triangle Club, 4; Associate Editor MESSENGER, 4.

What would we do without Elsie? She is a girl that you can always call on and be sure that what you ask will be properly done. She is a true friend and a good student. Her favorite activity seems to be bluffing in Latin class although she claims it is eating. Her ambition is to be able to teach Muzzy's American History, her pet adomination is studying and her favorite dish is Boston baked beans.

CHARLES BARHAM BISHOP "BISH"

Age 20; Height 6′; Weight 165

"A heroic mind, expressed in action, in endurance proved."

President Class '21, 4; Athletic Association, 1, 2, 3, 4; Football, 4; Manager Varsity, 4; Baseball, 3, 4; Manager Class Baseball, 2; Track, 3; Blackwell Literary Society, 3, 4, Vice-President, 3, 4; Editor-in-Chief MESSENGER, 4; Hi-Y Club, 4; Glee Club; President Mandolin Club.

A bunch of enthusiasm and good cheer,—that's our president. His presence means pep, whether in the classroom or on the athletic field. To Charles goes the credit for the football renaissance in D. H. S. His honors speak volumes for his popularity, but the man, —Bishop—towers above his deeds. Charles claims that soup (the lunch counter kind) is his favorite dish; football, his favorite activity; lazy people, his pet abomination, and a college education his ambition.

HELEN KATHERINE MCGRANAHAN
"HELEN"

Age 18; Height 5′ 4″; Weight 121

"Her modesty concealed a thousand charms"

When we hear from Helen we usually hear something, but for the larger part of the time Helen is very quiet. She came to us from Ohio and though all of her "Yankee" ways are not all gone, she is gradually becoming one of us.

RUTH HONEYCUTT
"RUFUS"

Age 16; Height 5′; Weight 121

"How full of sweet indifference"

Ruth is the fastest typist of the business department but she just seems to drift along never causing any trouble. Again we have chicken salad for the favorite dish and graduation as the satisfaction of her highest ambition.

LOUISE L. DOWDEE
"OUIJA BOARD"

Age 16; Height 5′ 4″; Weight 107

"In all my days I never knew a lass
Who enjoyed life so much, yet so bright in every class."

Cornelia Spencer Literary Society; Glee Club, 4.

Louise studies and we all admit she's bright but just the same she loves her mirror and powder puff. Louise will make a success in life. From the opinion of the class she seems to have mystic powers, but her favorite dish is not in the least spirit-like, being "chicken a la king."

ROGER BAXTER DAVIS
"ROGER"

Age 20; Height 5′ 7″; Weight 136

"The force of his own merit makes his way"

President Class of '21, 3; Treasurer, 2; Athletic Association, 1, 2, 3, 4; Blackwell Literary Society, 3, 4, President, 4; Secretary, 3; Editor-in-Chief Hi-Rocket, 4; Mandolin Club.

Roger's outstanding features are his quiet, business-like manners, school spirit, and determination. We give due honor to Roger for bearing the brunt of the work of our newspaper. He surely deserves it. Roger has done good work in the Blackwell Literary Society. He stands high in the hearts of his classmates and his place in old D. H. S. will be hard to fill. Roger's ambition is to become a civil engineer; his pet abomination is rising early in the morning, his favorite dish,—"chicken." He amazes us all when he puts down, that taming wild women is his favorite activity.

GENEVIEVE MYERS
"GENEVIEVE"

Age 16; Height 5′ 3″; Weight 112

"And she was there my hope, my joy
My own dear Genevieve."

Treasurer Blue Triangle Girls

Genevieve is a good sport and doesn't try to be an angel. She is rather good but she has a desire to make mischief in the forty-minutes' study periods in room two on Wednesdays and Fridays and she usually succeeds. Genevieve loves fruit salad and hates oysters.

WILLARD BURDEN CHEEK
"BILL"

Age 17; Height 5′ 11½″; Weight 170

"It is excellent to have a giant's strength"

Blackwell Literary Society, 1, 2, 3, 4; Vice-President, 4; Chairman Executive Committee, 3; Marshal, 4.

Bill has many friends in the school. He is at his best in class,—a quiet, happy-go-lucky fellow, who realizes that he goes to school to get an education. Outside he is quite different, and makes it very evident he is out for a good time. Bill is one of the "stand-bys" in the Blackwell Literary Society. His pet abomination is hard work and no pay, his favorite dish, brains, and his ambition is to get a college education.

SARAH CATHERINE MASON
"KATE"

Age 17; Height 5′ 4½″; Weight 130

"Her loveliness I never knew
Until she smiled on me."

Cornelia Spencer Literary Society, 1, 2, 3, 4; Orchestra, 1, 2; Art Editor MESSENGER, 3; Assistant Art Editor Hi-Rocket, 4; Girls' Basketball Team, 4.

"Kate" is a good pal and a true friend. Every one knows that she is quite popular among the boys, not only at D. H. S. but elsewhere. She has so many "gentlemen friends" that she can't name them. Aside from this Sarah is a musician of note and her ambition is to become an accomplished violinist. Her pet abomination is any History exam., and her favorite dish is chicken salad, and her favorite activity is basketball in which she has starred.

CHARLES KNOX MASSEY
"FAT"

Age 18; Height 5′ 9″; Weight 150

"To those who know thee not, no words can paint,
And to those who know thee, all words are faint."

Athletic Association, 1, 2, 3, 4, President, 4; Secretary and Treasurer, 3; Football, 4; Baseball, 2, 3, 4, Captain, 3, Manager 4; Captain Class Baseball, 2; Literary Society, 3, 4, Vice-President, 4; Marshal, 4; Business Manager MESSENGER; Hi-Y Club, 4; Glee Club; Secretary and Treasurer Mandolin Club; Track, 4.

Knox will always be remembered in dear old D. H. S. for his success in athletics. Knox was the only man who played every minute in every football game this year. He always has a cheery smile or rather a grin for every one. Knox is also an excellent student and is liked by the faculty as well as student body. Knox admits that lunch counter soup is his favorite dish; athletics, his favorite activity, and studying, his pet abomination. His ambition is to legally possess a college sheep skin.

MARY BALLON MORTON
"DUMPS"

Age 17; Height 5′ 4″; Weight 116

"And the red was on your lip, Mary,
And the lovelight in your eyes."

Cornelia Spencer Literary Society, 4; Glee Club, 4; Ukulele Club, 4; Girls' Athletic Association; Chairman Service Committee Blue Triangle Club, 4.

She is a fair, fair member of our class. Mary with her curls carefully placed over her shoulder is always visible around the D. H. S. halls after school. Her pet abomination is being teased about her curls and her favorite dish, any kind of salad. Her favorite activity is starring in Dramatics.

CAROLYN HILL PICKETT
"CARA"

Age 19; Height 5′ 2″; Weight 99

"Your eyes are ever soft and bright"

Cara is small, we admit that, but she's none too quiet. She is rather settled and deals in "steadies" much to the detriment at times of her less important studies.

MILDRED EDNA RUTH LUNSFORD
"DIKE"

Age 18; Height 5′ 3″; Weight 120

"Music the fiercest grief can charm"

Ruth is a true friend and much liked by all who know her. She takes the business course so that she can keep check on all her pupils—take down their sassy speeches in shorthand, and keep account of all the money they owe her. Her ambition is of course to be a music teacher and her pet abomination is as usual studying History. Her favorite dish is sour pickles and her favorite activity, tennis.

ATLAS MONROE RIGSBEE
"IKE"—"A. M."

Age 17; Height 5′ 7″; Weight 132

"Ay, every inch a king"

Athletic Association, 1, 2, 3, 4; Football, 4; Basketball, 3, 4; Manager, 4; Track, 3; Blackwell Literary Society, 1, 2, 3, 4; Hi-Y Club, 2, 3, 4; Orchestra, 3, 4; Glee Club.

A. M. is one of us. He was quarterback on our football team and proved he could use his head in a game. We are sure we will see his name in athletics in college. A. M. seems to have the unusual and happy faculty of avoiding worry. He has about his studies, anyway. His ambition is to get a diploma from both high school and college. His pet abomination is his study, while eating is his favorite activity. He claims that "Mulligan" stew is his favorite dish. Hope you enjoy it, Ike.

MABEL STRICKLAND
"MABEL"

Age 16; Height 5′ 7″; Weight 135

"Convinced against her will, she's of her own opinion still."

Mabel just loves to argue on History and often nearly breaks up the class. In her other classes she's terribly quiet so that you would hardly know her to be the same girl. Mabel follows the crowd and speaks for chicken salad and graduation as her favorite dish and highest ambition, respectively.

GRACE BISHOP
"GRACE"

Age 17; Height 5′ 7″; Weight 116

"A good heart is worth gold"

Grace has been with us four years and though quiet and unassuming in her ways she is always there when school spirit and class loyalty are required. Grace majors in the commercial course and is working toward success as a business woman. Though she loves chicken salad she hates cooking and washing dishes.

ANNIE WALKER GARRARD "WAWPEE"
Age 16; Height 5′; Weight 106
"Little but loud"

Cornelia Spencer Literary Society, 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association, 4; Hi-Rocket Staff, 4; MESSENGER Staff.

Annie's little, but Annie just will be loud. Most everybody thinks she is an angel but to tell the truth Annie's quite human and as mean as the general run—in spite of the demerit book. She leaves behind her hosts of friends but someone tells us it "ain't Annie's fault."

JOSEPH MARYON SAUNDERS "SANDERS"
Age 17; Height 6′ 2″; Weight 153
"He was complete in features and in mind, with all good graces to grace a gentleman."

Vice-President Class, 4; Athletic Association, 1, 2, 3, 4; Cheer Leader, 4; Blackwell Literary Society, 3, 4; Treasurer, 4; Chairman Executive Committee, 4; Inter-Society and Triangular Debater, 3, 4; Hi-Y Club, 3, 4; President, 4; Dramatic Club, 3, 4; Glee Club, 4; Hi-Rocket Staff, 4; MESSENGER Staff, 4.

"Sanders" is one of the most popular fellows in school, an all-around good sport. He is never too busy to take on another job and can be depended upon to finish it according to specifications in record time. Sanders' favorite activity is baseball, his favorite dish, kisses (candy ones, he says) and his pet abomination, memorizing poetry. He tells us his ambition is to practice law and we know he will realize it.

PAULINE LOUISE BULLINGTON "LOUISE"
Age 16; Height 5′ 5½″; Weight 140
"If to her share some female errors fall
Look on her face and you'll forget them all."

President Class, 1; Cornelia Spencer Literary Society, 4; Athletic Association, 4; Sponsor Boys' Basketball Team, 4; Glee Club, 4; Girls' Basketball Team, 4; Dramatic Club, 4.

Louise's lovely face helped keep our days bright. She has always been a good student, even in History class although she says her pet abomination is Mr. Holton's quizzes. Her ambition is to be highly educated, her favorite dish is chicken salad, and her favorite activity is playing basketball.

LUDLOW THOMAS ROGERS "LUD"
Age 17; Height 5′ 8½″; Weight 137
"None but himself can be his parallel"

Athletic Association, 1, 2, 3, 4; Blackwell Literary Society, 2, 3, 4; President, 4; Secretary, 3; Inter-Society and Triangular Debater, 4; Circulation Manager Hi-Rocket, 4; Hi-Y Club, 3, 4; Dramatic Club, 3, 4; Glee Club; Mandolin Club; Representative to Older Boys' Conference, 4.

Here is a classmate that we can never forget. Congenial, always ready for fun, and often making witty remarks. Although "Lud" is out for a good time, he is also a serious student. He believes the best way to have friends is to be a friend to all. Ludlow's pet abomination is Virgil. His favorite activity is leaving school at 12:20; his favorite dish is a full and overflowing one; and his ambition is to be president. (Of what?)

Annie Wall Foushee
"annie wall-rus"

Age 14; Height 5′ 5″; Weight 138

"Say something, if you have to take it back"

Triangular Debate; Glee Club, 3, 4; Censor Cornelia Spencer Literary Society, 3, 4; Vice-President, 4; Associate Editor Messenger, 3; Literary Editor Hi-Rocket, 4; Athletic Association, 4; Blue Triangle Club, 4.

Annie Wall is a good pal, good sport, and hard worker. She is always ready for a frolic but sits up till daybreak studying to make up for the time she has lost. Annie Wall-rus is an incessant talker. Her ambition is to be able to jazz like Carl Hobgood and her pet abominations are Mr. Holton's white socks and Hugh Emmet's loud shirts. Her favorite dish is toad stool and her favorite activity is swimming.

William Henry Murdock
"bill"

Age 16; Height 5′ 10½″; Weight 145

"Thou art a fellow of good report"

Athletic Association, 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball Squad, 4; Blackwell Literary Society, 4; Hi-Y Club, 2, 3, 4; Mandolin Club.

Old D. H. S. will miss Bill when he leaves her. Bill certainly is a good sport and has plenty of school spirit. We think that Bill's greatest honor in the D. H. S. was to become a member of the Senior Class. It is rumored that Bill is a ladies' man. Bill is with the majority of the class when he says that studying is his pet abomination. His favorite dish is ice cream, his favorite activity is basketball and his ambition is to muster 16 units while in D. H. S.

Bernice Helen Crumpacker
"crums"

Age 17; Height 5′ 5″; Weight 135

"See the conquering hero come"

Cornelia Spencer Literary Society, 4; Glee Club, 4; Blue Triangle, 4; Basketball Team; Captain, 4; Girls' Athletic Association; President, 4.

How shall we mention all her qualities in such a little space? First and foremost "Crums" is a great athlete. She was the main force in the revival of girls' basketball. She is a good actress, and has appeared in several plays. Bernice is also an excellent Domestic Science student and she wishes to become a Domestic Science teacher.

Carl Hunter Hobgood
"kate"

Age 17; Height 6′ 1½″; Weight 167

"A man of wit and merry sayings"

Business Manager Hi-Rocket, 4; Hi-Y Club, 3, 4; Orchestra, 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club, 3, 4; Glee Club, 4.

Carl has one of the most striking personalities in D. H. S. His motto is "Never cross a bridge before you get to it." His acute sense of humor, witty remarks, horse laughs, scheming abilities, Utopian dreams, weakness for members of the fairer sex, ability to compose poetry and to write stories, his optimistic view, musical and dramatic abilities, and many other qualities go to make up this pal of ours. We are surely fortunate to have had such a person in our midst. Carl's pet abomination is translating Virgil; his favorite activity is orchestra work and his favorite dish, beans. His ambition is a noble one—that of becoming a surgeon.

LOUISE HELEN MARKHAM
"DINK"

Age 15; Height 5′ 2″; Weight 96

"To know her is to love her"

Cornelia Spencer Literary Society, 3, 4; Censor, 4; Glee Club, 3, 4.

Louise is quiet and modest. She is lovable and attractive with her shy ways. She is a good student in all her classes, and has a habit of frightening everyone around her in Latin by informing them that Miss Susie is to call on them that day. Is she a mind reader or what? Her ambition is to become an eminent educator while her pet abomination is Mr. Holton's History tests. Her favorite dish is the soup sold at the lunch counter and her favorite activity, playing tennis.

GORDON ASHPY KIRKLAND
"CHUBBY"—"SENATOR FOOT"

Age 16; Height 5′ 7″; Weight 160

"They also serve who only stand and wait"

Athletic Association, 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball, 4; Baseball, 3; Cheer Leader, 4; Blackwell Literary Society, 3, 4; Hi-Y Club, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club.

"Chubby" is a popular member of the student body, and is known by all. He developed into a basketball guard in one year—a record to be proud of. Taken all in all, he is one of the best of the fellows—a man among men, whose cheery smile and hearty cough will be remembered by his scores of friends. "Chubb's" favorite dish is quail on toast, his favorite activity, baseball, and studying is his pet abomination. His ambition is to become a successful business man.

SADIE BROOKS
"SADIE FRANCES"

Age 17; Height 5′ 4″; Weight 128

"She moves along the even tenor of her way"

Sadie is a business woman and though she moves about quietly she's in for a successful career. Sadie says chicken salad is her favorite dish and she likes her business course best of all her studies.

WILLIAM BRUCE STEPHENS "BRUCE"

Age 17; Height 5′ 10″; Weight 135

"Not too serious, not too gay,
But always a jolly good fellow."

Athletic Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Hi-Y Club 4.

Bruce is one of our class that believes that his studies hinder his education. He is a good fellow, for all that though, and we are glad to have had him as a classmate. He is a generous, kind-hearted boy and is liked by all. His favorite dish is soup—that is the lunch counter variety, and his favorite activity, wrecking automobiles (we believe it). English is his pet abomination. His ambition is to be a high school principal.

MARION SHEPARD PIATT
"SIS"

Age 15; Height 5′ 5″; Weight 132

"If thou appear untouched by solemn thought
Thy nature is not therefore less divine."

Secretary Glee Club, 4; Member Glee Club, 3, 4; Cornelia Spencer Literary Society, 1, 2, 3, 4; Treasurer C. S. L. S., 3; President C. S. L. S., 4; MESSENGER Staff, 4; Girls' Basketball Team, 4; Manager Girls' Basketball Team, 4.

"Sis" is a good sport and hard worker. She has made a good record for herself on the basketball team but she has also been a good student. "Sis" wishes to become a missionary doctor—we are all glad to note that she is so far different from what we judged. She is of a rather lovable and sunny disposition except when she's mad. If you wish to learn anything about her many admirable qualities inquire at the D. H. S.

HUGH LYON CARR
"HUGH EMMETT"

Age 17; Height 5′ 7″; Weight 125

"Of manners gentle, of affections mild!
In wit a man, simplicity, a child."

Athletic Association, 2, 3, 4; Blackwell Literary Society, 3, 4; Declaimer in Trinity College Contest, 4; Hi-Y Club, 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club, 4; Glee Club, 4; Vice-President.

This classmate has been with us for four years, and has always been loyal to his class. He is a good student, and also a fine speaker, having shown his declaiming abilities when he was chosen as the representative of the D. H. S. to the "9019" contest at Trinity. He is known throughout the school for his peculiar wit. Lyon's favorite dish is cake, his favorite activity, Literary Society work, and his pet abomination is to try to get left. His ambition is to become a lawyer.

IRENE FOSTER
"IRENE"

Age 17; Height 5′ 2″; Weight 102

"She looks the whole world in the face"

Glee Club, 4

Irene claims the distinction of being one of the two red-headed girls of our class. Irene's not so peppy as her hair perhaps "but—a red-headed girl can always get a man" and she claims this is her mainstay in life. Irene likes the "old D. H. S. lunch counter soup" but hates to wash the bowls.

OSCAR WOODS HOLLOWAY, JR.
"WOODS"

Age 17; Height 5′ 9″; Weight 135

"Thee and thy virtues here I seize upon"

Athletic Association, 3, 4; Blackwell Literary Society, 3.

Woods is a quiet, but fun-loving type of boy. He delights in reading books, a good pastime, I'll say. Woods came to us two years ago and at once made his way into our hearts by his gentle manners, quiet disposition and good looks. Woods is in spirit a real member of the Durham High. His pet abomination is study. His favorite dish is "weenies," while his favorite activity is reading. His ambition in life is to be a surgeon.

JEAN SILVER
"JENNIE"

Age 17; Height 5′ 2″; Weight 135

"'Twas certain she could write and cipher too"

"Dot" is a great girl. She's full of fun and nearly always laughing. Then she nearly always had some delicious candy somewhere about her—maybe this accounts for some of her popularity. Everyone that went to third period reading room will remember Dorothy because she had a good time even if she had to keep quiet. She is a good student, especially in English. Her ambition is to be a first-class violinist and her pet abomination is the Constitution of the United States. Her favorite dish is fruit salad and her favorite activity is playing tennis.

"Duck" has been with us for three years and we don't see how we ever got along without him in our first year. "Duck" has introduced many wonderful speeches in the school by way of the Literary Society hall. Nevertheless he is a friend to all and is admired by all. We are glad to have had him among us. "Duck" believes in the proverb "Climb not too high lest your fall be greater," for he says he has no ambition. His favorite activity is sleeping; favorite dish, "weenies," and his pet abomination is anything hard.

Class Poem

We the Class of '21
At last must say farewell.
We've lingered long in D. H. S.
But now we've heard the bell.

It calls us from our classes,
And from the study halls;
No longer will our voices
Resound within its walls.

Our thanks to thee in leaving,
Old school now grown so dear,
The parting once so far away,
We find at last too near.

Farewell to thee forever more,
Dear D. H. S. so true;
You've led us on through work and play,
We'll always stand by you.

We heard her singing at her work—
The music in our hearts we bore
Long after it was heard no more.

History of the Class of 1921

IN THE BEGINNING which was September, 1917, our class entered the Durham High School. There were one hundred and twenty-one of us and we early learned that High School life was not all one grand, sweet song and that an education was not an easy thing to get.

It was some time before we learned to discredit the many horrible tales that the "bold sophs" related to us. At this time the United States was at war with Germany and a movement to form two companies of cadets for military training in the High School was introduced and a number of our boys joined this battalion. Many of our members began their outside activities by joining the Literary Societies or attempting to win fame in athletics. We must in honesty confess that we were somewhat amazed at the new and startling ways in which the affairs of the High School were conducted.

Those days of trials, tribulations, and exciting experiences quickly passed and we emerged into our second year as all-knowing Sophomores. Our number had slightly decreased, but those of us who remained were courageous and undaunted. Many individual achievements belong in the records of that second year. Baseball was introduced in the High School for the first time in five years with some of the star players from our class. The big Sophomores' social must not be forgotten. A masquerade ball at which we appeared dressed in costumes representing anything from colonial dames and gypsies to old women and Bohemian dancers.

By September we had reverted to normalcy, however, and entered our Junior year to find that we had increased in knowledge, number, and good looks. Under the able leadership of our president, Roger Davis, we had another very successful year. The most interesting feature of our Junior social was a small minstrel show given by the boys. Everyone enjoyed this affair exceedingly. We were represented on the basketball team, which lost only one "high" game during the season. The manager and captain of the baseball team, who were also our best players, were members of our class. Our track record was enviable as well, for at the State meet at Chapel Hill the Junior class carried off all the honors for the school. We were very prominent in our Literary Society work furnishing the best speaker for the Blackwell Literary Society and the Cornelia Spencer Literary Society. One of the School Triangular debating teams was composed of two members of our class. We were represented in some of the most noteworthy of the school activities which have not been previously mentioned, the MESSENGER staff, the Orchestra, the Hi-Y Club, and the Athletic Associations. We had an exceedingly good time this year but were glad when it was over and we began our vacation with the seemingly unattainable goal in view.

With the happy feeling that we were dignified Seniors we began the golden age of our High School career with the largest Senior Class in the history of Durham High School. Our number was ninety-nine, September 6 and though, alas! some strayed from the fold an overwhelming majority completed the course. We found that football was to be re-established in the High School and that several members of our class had been responsible for this noteworthy achievement. We had a good team this year beating the strong Raleigh High School by a score of 6-0. Even though we won only one game, tied one and lost four, it is to be realized that this was the High School's first football season and that we did exceedingly well considering our difficulties. Our class was well represented on this team and we feel that the manager is to be congratulated on the fine schedule which he arranged. We were fortunate in the officers elected at the beginning of the year. They served us faithfully and to them we owe in great measure the success of our Senior Class.

Nineteen twenty-one furnished the representative in the Trinity 9019 Declamation contest, and also the four members for the State Triangular debate. We claim first interest in all athletics. The girls' basketball team, the first to arrange an active schedule with other State teams, had a captain, managers, and four team members from the Senior Class. Seniors were chosen also to manage the boys' basketball and baseball teams, the class being well represented on both. The social side of our Senior year included many interesting events; the first of which was a very successful Hallowe'en party. A carnival was staged for Washington's birthday and the year ended in a blaze of glory with the best Senior banquet ever.

It is with growing love and admiration for our dear old High School in these last days that we part from her. We hope that her aim and standards will be met by those who follow us. When we think of her name our hearts will turn with loving thoughts to these years and pleasant memories of our High School days will linger with us forever.

THE DURHAM SUN-HERALD

Volume—Forty-eleventh May 30, 1940 No. 1

Mr. F. Jay Bates and Miss Olivia Brooks, who have faithfully and gracefully presided as principals of the D. H. S. for the last twenty years, struck upon a most brilliant idea for a chapel program, that of recalling the Alumni of 1921, those most remarkable and well-remembered students. The object of this celebration was to furnish inspiration to the present students, although it is doubtful that another class can attain the goal thus set. Mr. Bates and Miss Brooks had quite a few difficulties in locating the members who have scattered with their vocations to the four corners of the earth. Most of them arrived, however, in time for chapel yesterday and many prove to be quite a curiosity, having changed in various ways.

Perhaps the most outstanding example was the group of theatrical magnates, Wade Beck, William Bradshaw, Roger Davis, Gordon Kirkland, and Cecil Crowder, who have established an Orpheum theatre in the large and thriving metropolis of Bilboa.

Almost equal surprise was occasioned by the letters read from members of the class now serving in foreign mission fields, Edith Hulin, Zilpha McGranahan, Lettice Walters, Dorothy Cox, and Mary Morton. Their work is supported in large measure by the generous contributions of the millionaire firm of pawnbrokers—Suitt and Veasey. Mr. Beck was instrumental in securing for the chapel program the Cary Stock Company whose leading actress is Rebecca Cameron. She stated that her work was made pleasant by association with her old classmates, Soubrette, Annie Walker Garrard, and leading man, Abe Swartz.

It must not be understood that all of the class have served in such conspicuous positions. Alice Burns, Henrietta Reams, Beatrice Harward, Virginia Smith, Katherine Guthrie, Marion Piatt, and Elizabeth Mitchell have taught school for nineteen years. Miss Reams and Miss Guthrie hope to secure high school positions within the next ten years. Two other members of the class, Eunice Hutchins and Annie Wall Foushee, who began as primary teachers, have since specialized in work for deaf-mutes, stating that they wished to preserve their characteristic silence.

Equally praiseworthy were the careers of Roger Mack, Blair Parks, and Ralph Fuller, who have distinguished themselves as soda-jerkers. Allied to their work has been the Durham Damp Wash which has as its noted proprietor Raymond O'Brien. The Damp Wash has specialized in domestic service and among its patrons have been many prominent housewives, known to the High School records as Grace Bishop, Ruth Lunsford, Sudie Murray, Claudia Holeman, Felsie Tucker, and Annie Murnick, all of whom are distinguished by their matrimonial felicity.

The professions were successfully represented as follows: Law, James Copeland, Mae Bethel Morris, and Woods Holloway. Medicine, Louise Markham, Virginia Ashlin, and Leyburn Brockwell, their motto being "Kill or Cure." Dr. Brockwell, who has distinguished himself as a surgeon, says that his best nurses are Annie Louise Southerland, Ella Whitted, and Lucy Waller, who entered the profession because they thought the uniform becoming. Ministry, Lyon Carr,

A. M. Rigsbee, Nannie Andrews, and Bernice Crumpacker. The Reverend Crumpacker, whose quiet and modest demeanor in high school days was often remarked, has succeeded in winning such sinners as Elsie Beavers, Ruth Miles, and Lida Dunnegan.

The business world was fortunate in acquiring such unusual business qualities as those possessed by Elizabeth Tyree, William Carrington, Louise Bullington, and Genevieve Myers. Although not following the business course in high school their academic work was of such quality as to make success in any field certain. Miss Bullington is private secretary to Mr. Frank Warner, now president of the affiliated Robert W. Browning Clubs of America. Frequent speakers in the local Browning Club are Irene Foster, Marcelle Williams, Helen McGranahan, Elbert Burnette, and Blandina Broadway, all of whom are authors of note. This comes as no surprise to those familiar with their English records.

But as man cannot live by books alone, Mr. Bates rejoiced in presenting those members of the class whose careers are of an eminently practical character. Charles Bishop, Maryon Saunders, Henry Hicks, and Knox Massey conduct highly successful "weenie" stands, though their business is somewhat injured by the successful restaurant managed by Sarah Mason, Mary Louise Carlton, and Cara Picket. Such brilliant domestic science students as Jewel Bennett, Arline Strickland, Annie Lou Myrick, and Ella Boone Dickson, have, as was expected of them, established a successful stenographic agency.

Among the distinguished politicians of the class who won their way because of their ability in public speaking, were Wortham Lyon, William Byrd, Gladys Harris, and Dorothy Wilson. Miss Annie Mae Sorrell, Congresswoman from the twenty-third district, says she owes her election to their assistance. She is closely associated with Carl Hobgood, who has recently been honored with the portfolio of war by President Willard Cheek.

Ruth Honeycutt, Helen Sears, Elizabeth Freeland, Louise Dowdee, and Sadie Silver, though discouraged because of their failure in the business world, have taken up china painting, of which they have made a financial and artistic success. The artistic designs for this work are furnished by Leonard Graham and Ludlow Rogers (prices given on request).

One of the most interesting talks was given by Hannah Shevel, the president of the Physical Training School in Hillsboro. She said that the success of the school had been in large measure due to the successful coaching given by Waldron Lewter, Annie Hurst, Edward Lee, and Mabel Strickland.

Because of the similarity of their characteristics and attainments, Mary Graves, Winnifred Mason, William Murdock, and Bruce Stephens early agreed to establish a matrimonial agency but for personal reasons have found it unwise to consider applications from members of their own class. Annie Dave, Will Sease, Albert Stainback, Jean Silver, and Ila Venable have applied in spite of this rule and it is expected that before 1960 these applications will all be satisfactorily filled.

The program covered the entire school day, thus preventing three quizzes in History and five in French and Spanish, to the great regret of the students. The exercises were concluded by the beautiful rendition of the latest popular lyric, "We Three Kings of the Orient Are," sung by Cecil Crowder, as a trio.

Last Will and Testament

Having, as have many people before us, been confined within these, the walls of the Durham High School, for many years (four or five to be exact), and being, as a result, of more or less unsound mind, we, the Senior Class, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, do hereby, choose, appoint and empower certain of our number to write our last will and testament as follows:

1. The members of the class do bestow upon the most worthy members of the lower classes (especially the Juniors) that imperial dignity which has always been the special prerogative of seniors.

2. The Senior Class leaves to the Junior Class the privilege of sleeping in Mr. Holton's History class.

3. Blair Parks bestows on Arnold Perry his beautiful tragic voice.

4. Frank Warner leaves to A. V. Satterwhite his excess stature; to the orchestra his trombone (which is not his own), and to Edgar Cheek his accumulated laziness.

5. William Bradshaw wills to Eugene Carlton his love for the ladies.

6. Ralph Fuller leaves to Seaton Holt his popularity with the girls of the school.

7. Waldron Lewter gives to Paul Sykes such of his lady-like manners as he can spare.

8. Carl Hobgood leaves to Linwood Hollowell his ability to get out of all his work and make it appear that he did it all.

9. Ludlow Rogers leaves to "Fatty Andrews" a perfectly good head of chero-cola hair.

10. William Murdock and Maryon Saunders leave to future generations the pictures of the two most handsome pupils who have honored this school by their attendance.

11. Wade Beck leaves his studious habits to Willie Crews.

12. Cecil Crowder leaves his rough manners to Robert McGranahan.

13. Elizabeth Mitchell leaves her ability to flirt to Annie Ragan.

14. Zilpha McGranahan wills to the timid Freshmen her reported ability to slide down the High School banisters; to Blanche Broadway her spare height; last but not least, she has agreed that her beauty recipes be evenly distributed among the girls of the Junior Class.

15. Helen Sears leaves to Marie Jones her ability to sit on the front seat and eat without getting caught.

16. Ila Venable leaves to the Junior that sits in her desk next year, all the chewing gum wads under it.

17. Mae Bethel Morris wills to Beautys Bassett, of the Junior Class, her enormous appetite.

18. To Edrah Higbee, Rebecca Cameron wills her knowledge of history.

19. Cara Pickett wills her weight and height to little Margaret Noell.

20. Nannie Andrews bequeaths her natural golden tresses to Edith Ward.

21. Claudia Holeman wills to Virginia Green her place at the lunch counter—on the boys' side.

22. Edith Hulin hereby gives and bequeaths to the boys of '22 her leftover hair, for the next womanless wedding staged in the D. H. S.

23. Louise Dowdee takes pity on her cousin, Elizabeth Dowdee, in her "ignorant state of bliss," and wills her 75 test papers.

24. Katherine Guthrie leaves her ability to vamp the faculty to Candace Bryant.

25. Helen K. McGranahan leaves her blush to Cumi Epps.

26. Annie W. Garrard leaves to Elizabeth Hobgood her privilege of keeping Miss Ligon's demerit book, provided that she will be very conscientious in putting down all her own demerits.

27. Genevieve Myers bequeaths her mirror to Elizabeth Parrish. You can't have too many, Elizabeth!

28. Sadie Brooks leaves to Miss Ligon the privilege of pulling out of her seat, by the collar, any Junior in chapel, so that she may sit in said Junior's seat.

29. Mabel Strickland bequeaths to Eunice May the privilege of asking "What do you have to do that for?" about all Senior affairs.

30. Annie Wall Foushee leaves and bequeaths her coy dimples, sly flirtations, amorous glances, and her other charms to Lucy Glasson; also her famous Latin jack to Nancy Alston.

31. Miss Bernice Crumpacker gives and bequeaths, free from all conditions, her "manly swagger" to the owner of the "Broadway walk"—Miss Joyce Harper.

32. Dorothy Cox wills her eyes to any Junior who can use them to the best advantage.

33. Sarah Mason and Louise Bullington leave their places on the basketball team to Elizabeth Felts and Margaret Wannamaker, provided they will always play in high heel slippers.

34. Virginia Ashlin wills Dorothy Cox's powder puff and mirror to Evelyn Salmon, provided she won't let Dorothy know she has it.

35. Marion Piatt leaves her enormously large mouth to Eugene Erwin, not that he needs it, but from motives of pure generosity.

36. Henry Hicks leaves his job as treasurer of the "Co-ops" to George Harris.

37. Mary Louise Carlton bequeaths her "inspiration" to the Juniors. Shakespeare's remarks about this change—"Oh, Inspiration, thou art fled to brutish beasts."

38. Mary Morton leaves her place as Miss Ligon's pet to Hall Smith.

39. Elizabeth Tyree leaves her charm of gracefulness to Adele Rogers.

40. The first period History class in room three grants to Mr. Gilpatrick the special right and privilege to make the Juniors read the Monroe Doctrine in "The World's Almanac." (No other source will do—World's is the best.)

41. The second period typewriting class gives to Miss Solloway the privilege of making the girls change machine every other day.

42. To Miss McGehee is left the privilege to say that the notes in the back of "Cicero" are not correct.

43. To Mr. Bates is left the privilege of finding an office boy who is perfect.

44. To Miss Susie Michaels, the Seniors leave the privilege to fail at least ten every month; also to require a slip from the office to sharpen a pencil.

45. To all our teachers we leave the memory of the most troublesome crowd they have ever tried to teach; also the love, honor, and respect due to the only people who could stand our "cunning little ways" and teach us that which we know.

History of the Class of '22

HARK YE! Long, long, ago, on the first of September in the good old year of nineteen hundred and eighteen, there gathered in the chapel of D. H. S. something over a hundred shy little boys and girls. Bravely putting behind us the pleasant memories of our grammar school life we turned grim faces to the future and Miss Smith's parallels. Ere the first month had passed we had learned the art of getting through the halls without colliding with the ponderous dignity of Catherine Dowdee, or Moses Stadium, or some other heavy-weight champion. We had also penetrated the mysteries of the gloomy laboratory and made friends with Miss Grove's pet snake. The bright event of our Freshman year was the masquerade social at which, by decree of Miss Brooks and Mr. Hallenbeck, no one was allowed to wear masks. We were not, however, so shy and abashed but what we could enjoy and profit by our errors. So the year passed on to the close and the final night at the Academy of Music when we sat back in the audience and "oh-ed" and "aw-ed" and generously applauded as the Seniors received their rewards.

The following autumn we flocked back, one hundred and thirty-one strong, to the no longer strange halls and classrooms of the High School. We soon began making good in various school activities. Some of our boys played on the splendid basketball team of nineteen-twenty and some on the baseball team. Student government was put into effect about this time, and we enjoyed the peace and quiet (?) of the study hall, free from the teachers' stern eye.

Then came the best year we have yet spent in old D. H. S.—the Junior year! It did not take us long to start "doing things." We made a good beginning by electing Seaton Holt, president; Ballard Troy, vice-president; Irene Hurst, secretary, and Linwood Hollowell, treasurer, at a class meeting early in the term. The Junior Class is justly proud of Bun Hackney, President Holt, Vice-President Troy, Captain Paul Sykes, John White, Robert McGranahan, and many others who represent the class on the football field. This is not half that might be told about the class. Many, many amusing and pathetic facts must remain forever buried because of the brief space allotted the history of this wonderful group. Since "actions speak louder than words" we shall find ample room to spread our fame and strew our good deeds when we become seniors in the good old year of nineteen hundred and twenty-two.

Sophomore History

THE two hundred and seven brilliant members of the Sophomore Class were admitted into the D. H. S. in the fall of 1919 after seven years of unsurpassed performance in the grammar schools of Durham. The class had a meeting in the early fall and selected for its officers: William Fraiser, president, and Ermine Peeke, vice-president.

In March the class held a "heart social" in the basement of the school which was attractively decorated with hearts for the occasion. A most entertaining play was given in the chapel, Evelyn Webster being the leading character. The next feature of the evening was a series of "proposals" which were made by Belva Hutchins, Grace Cox, Etta Heartt Graham, and Ruth Piatt. Ruth, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Piatt, won the much embarrassed youth. After a delicious ice course everyone returned home declaring this the most enjoyable evening he had ever spent. The members of the class continued their excellent work in the High School until the close of the school year, June 5, 1920.

After a pleasant vacation we reassembled as Sophomores and began the second year of work in the D. H. S. In October William Fraiser called a meeting of the class and new officers were elected, as follows:

Ferrell Shuford ..... President
Mary Gregory ..... Vice-President
Blanche Broadway ..... Secretary
Ermine Peeke ..... Treasurer

On Thanksgiving Eve the class held a social and had a newspaper minstrel which was directed by Miss Margaret Nowel with the aid of her rolling pin. After very attractive dances given by Grace Cox and Jane Blanchard everyone found his partner and delicious refreshments were served.

We, the Sophomore Class of 1921, do give and bequeath to the Freshmen of this year, 1921, who will take our dignified name, our popular place in the D. H. S., as well as our knowledge of parliamentary procedure. We do also give and bequeath to this class Marie Tyler's Latin jack, and to the school we give our gratitude for allowing us to wear the honored title Juniors—we hope.

The Co-operative Class

THE CO-OPERATIVE CLASS came into being four years ago. It was formed to fill a pressing need in our school. At that time among the students in the Durham High School were many boys who were planning to stop school because of economic reasons. Still others had become discouraged because of failure to make passing grades in subjects which they disliked. Then there was the boy who had been out of school for some time and, finding himself ill-equipped for life's service and advancements, had come back to get as much as the school offered him. These boys needed individual instruction. Their needs were studied and an effort was made to fill these needs. The Co-operative Class was formed, a class in which these boys were given every advantage possible. Many of the first group—those who were planning to stop school because of economic reasons—were given part time work; they came to school two weeks and worked in shops two weeks. The second group was given subjects which appealed to them and they became interested in school when they found they were passing their work. The boys who were retarded because of having been out of school for some time were encouraged and advanced just as rapidly as they could do the work. One group of these fellows has made three years' work in two years' time.

For three years the class moved along without organizing mainly because there were so many changes in their ranks. They had grown so in number, however, that they felt the time was ripe for organization and so in 1921 the Co-operative Class, as an organized unit of the student body, made its appearance. One of the first things attempted by this organization was a form of student government which has proved a very successful venture. The class hopes to initiate other student activities in the future.

Both of the above teams entered in the finals. The negative team in competition with Greensboro won for its second time the Aycock Memorial Cup, at Chapel Hill, April 15, 1921.

BLACKWELL LITERARY SOCIETY

The Blackwell Literary Society

THE BLACKWELL LITERARY SOCIETY has had a most successful year in 1920-21. The boys seemed to realize that the Society was the place to develop themselves in the line of public speaking, an opportunity offered in no course in the curriculum of the High School. The Literary Society has a plan of self-government and every member is always on his honor to do the most he can for the uplifting of the Society.

The Society meets every Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The programs this year have been unusually good. These programs consist of a debate on some live political issue of the day, three or four declamations, a lecturer, a humorist, and several impromptu two-minute speeches on subjects given out by the president. Our best debaters are Ludlow Rogers and Maryon Saunders, who were our representatives on the inter-society debate, and later became members of the two triangular teams; Malcolm Young, Wade Beck, Blair Parks, and William Bradshaw, who came out for the inter-society team, and Roger Davis, Charles Bishop, and Willard Cheek. Among our declaimers are: Lyon Carr, our representative to the "9019" contest at Trinity College, Malcolm Young, our representative to the Wake Forest contest, Henry Bane, Douglas Chandler, Blair Parks, Wade Beck, William Bradshaw, and Maryon Saunders, who came out for these places. The members of the Society shall always connect the name of William Bradshaw with the poems—"Annabel Lee" and "On His Blindness." William has such a melodious, pathetic, mellow voice which literally brings down the house when he gives them. (Usually he gives one or the other at every meeting.)

Besides receiving training in public speaking, a number of boys were able to develop into excellent presiding officers. With the valuable assistance of faculty members of the Society—Mr. Holton and Mr. Newsome, the boys have succeeded in placing the literary work on such a high plane as to have the school officials give one-fourth of a unit for a year in literary society work. There is also offered a gold medal for the members doing the best work in the Society.

THE CORNELIA SPENCER LITERARY SOCIETY was organized in 1908, and is composed of the girl students of the Durham High School. The Society's object is to promote interest among the students in literature, dramatics, and debating. The meetings are held once a week and the pleasure as well as the benefits derived are well worth the expense incident to membership.

During the past term the meetings have been well attended. At the beginning of the year an initiation was held for the new members. The programs have been exceedingly attractive, and the program committee deserves great credit. Especially interesting have been the programs concerning the customs of Japan. The Society is divided into three clubs—literary, dramatic, and debating. These clubs present programs alternately, thus furnishing a variety of entertainment.

Five members of the Society took part in the try-out for the triangular debate. These members were Eunice Hutchins, Annie Wall Foushee, Irene Hurst, Ethel Davis, and Annie Murnick. Eunice Hutchins and Annie Wall Foushee were chosen to represent the Society in the inter-society debate which they won by unanimous decision of the judges. They thus became members of the triangular debating team, Miss Hutchins for the negative and Miss Foushee for the affirmative.

The success of the Society has been in great measure due to the untiring efforts of Miss Grace Holton who has given freely of her time and experience to the work. Cornelia Spencer looks forward to a future which has been made possible by the conscientious efforts of the Society members during 1920-21.

The Durham High basket ball their first game of the season Thursday night, December 9th, on the home floor. Although it was the first game played by the local team, our boys played exceptionally well, winning handily by a score of 20 to 9.

The passing of the home team was unusually good. Cary High showed a fast team but they were outclassed by White's team in all the three periods in the game. The score at 15 to 15 was outweighed by

THE ORCHESTRA

Durham High School Orchestra

"MUSIC HATH CHARMS"—more particularly such excellent music as that furnished by the High School Orchestra. We have indeed been well supplied with splendid music this year by our orchestra under the direction of Mr. Holton. The members have been on the job from the opening of school to the close. Our chapel exercises have been made more pleasant by this faithful band of musicians.

The orchestra consists of thirteen instruments which are as follows: Mr. Quinton Holton, director; violins, Sol Bane, Henry Bane, and Max Swartz; cornets, Carl Hobgood and Abe Swartz; clarinet, Albert Stainback; saxophones, William Byrd and Sol Mason; trombone, Frank Warner; drums, A. M. Rigsbee; pianist, Virginia Ashlin. Mr. Holton, as director, has made an excellent leader. Just as it takes everything to make a world it takes a good orchestra to make a good high school.

The orchestra made our steps lighter as we marched into chapel. They have lifted dull cares from our minds so that we could do our work better, and have in every way done their part to make the year easier and happier.

FOOTBALL TEAM

Football

IN THE FALL OF 1920, for the first time in ten years, D. H. S. was represented by a football team, and though the team suffered four defeats in six games played, the season can well be said to have been a huge success. One lone victory is credited to the team in its initial season, Raleigh being defeated in Durham by a 6-0 score; but the team also played a 0-0 tie with Oxford High School, in this city, easily outplaying the visitors.

Credit for the team should go to Manager Charles Bishop, who was the "big gun" behind the original agitation for a D. H. S. football team and Basil M. Watkins, local attorney, who coached the team. After a team was assured "Judge," as he is now familiarly known, more than proved his ability to teach gridironology, and with the hope that he will be able to give a little of his time to the 1921 team, followers of the D. H. S. team face the coming season with much confidence.

The first game to be played by D. H. S. in ten years was played at Oxford during the Granville County Fair week. Oxford won the game, 28–6, mainly because of "stage-fright" exhibited by the D. H. S. gridders.

A week from the following Friday the Carolina Freshmen second team visited Durham, the team playing its first home game, and defeated us by a 19–0 score. D. H. S. played well, though outweighed several pounds to the man, and the Freshies did not pile up as big a score as many of the critics predicted.

Oxford played us a return game a week later and was played to a scoreless tie, though we made ten first downs to their one, and completely outplayed them.

The first victory of the season was won at Hanes Field a week later when Raleigh Highs, our old rivals and a school represented by many good teams in the past, went down to defeat to the tune of 6–0. Knox Massey, D. H. S. left tackle, fell on a blocked kick behind the losers' goal line during the first minute of play thus winning the game. The teams fought nip-and-tuck for the remainder of the game, and on three occasions our goal was threatened, but the D. H. S. line, when pressed back to the one-yard line, held like a stone wall on all occasions, and this with the help of Frank Warner's punting sent the visitors home a defeated team.

We then played Trinity Park School at Hanes Field, and handicapped by the absence of both our regular quarterbacks from the game, suffered a 25–0 defeat. The T. P. S. team had in its ranks several experienced players, among whom were Owen, fullback on the Greensboro High, western state champions of 1919; and Parham, former Oxford tackle.

The final game of the season was played in Raleigh, where the Capital Highs gained vengeance for our victory, winning by a score of 20–7. D. H. S. was handicapped by the inability of Mr. Watkins to reach Raleigh for the opening half. After a series of gritty charges up the field by the team, A. M. Rigsbee, in the last quarter, went across for the D. H. S. touchdown, Bunn Hackney kicking the goal.

In conclusion it may be said that Mr. Watkins deserves the utmost credit for his work with the team last autumn, and that he predicts a very successful season for 1921.

BASKETBALL TEAM

Basketball

TEN VICTORIES in eighteen games played, was the record made by the D. H. S. basketball team for the season 1920-21. The team scored a total of 488 points to 438 for its opponents, and was eliminated from the state championship series in the third "round" by Chapel Hill High School. "Judge" Watkins lent a helping hand to the basketball team during the season—his services being secured as coach soon after the season opened. Mr. Gilpatrick acted as faculty advisor and in the face of great difficulties made the season a financial success.

The team which represented D. H. S. during the past season was extremely light, but fast on the floor. Manager Rigsbee proved a capable manager, and the club played a hard schedule. John White proved a good captain, and toward the end of the season developed an almost unerring foul shot.

The team, as a rule, took the floor to begin games composed of either Hackney, Rigsbee, or Graham, as forwards; Green as center, and White, Vickers, or Kirkland as guards. Rigsbee at times jumped center, Green was also seen at forward, Hackney at guard, and White at forward. Rigsbee, likewise, was stationed at guard in a number of games. Bunn Hackney started the season at guard, but, later developed into a fine shot, and was switched to forward. Suitt, R. Hackney and Murdock, in addition, composed the first ten men. Manager Rigsbee, Captain White, Graham, Green, and Suitt, were letter men from the previous year.

During the season we won twice from our old rival, Raleigh High, likewise defeated Cary and Roxboro on two occasions, and single victories were recorded over West Durham, Winston-Salem, Danville, and Trinity Park. We were defeated three times by Chapel Hill, and once each by Raleigh, Greensboro, Trinity park, the Alumni, and Danville.

We defeated Raleigh two to one in the elimination contests and bested Cary here in a tight game in our third elimination game. Our fourth game in the eastern championship series was a 46–28 victory for Chapel Hill. D. H. S. played one of its best games of the season, though defeated, and covered itself with glory in a game against a great deal heavier, older, and more experienced team.

The basketball team was handicapped more than has been the case in recent years, by the inability of securing a court which could really be called "home." Games, scheduled to be home games, were played at the Y. M. C. A., Angier Duke Gym at Trinity College, and the auditorium court. Every season it becomes more apparent that the team needs a basketball court which it can truly call "home." The making over of the school auditorium into a basketball court may in the future relieve this situation.

1921 Baseball Season

PROSPECTS for a championship baseball team at D. H. S. during the 1921 season were very bright as the MESSENGER went to press. Hugh Whitted, a retired professional player, living in Durham and an alumnus of D. H. S., agreed to coach the team. The coach played with the Durham team in 1920 and has seen much professional experience, having been in the American Association, the Wisconsin-Illinois, North Carolina, Piedmont, Virginia, Blue Ridge, and one or two other professional leagues. Whitted, is by the way, a brother of George Whitted, of the Pittsburgh Pirates, and should therefore be well fitted to coach the team. "Judge" Watkins, football coach, also announced that he would assist the team as much as possible, but his law practice prohibits him from giving much attention to baseball.

Manager Massey was planning a very good schedule, the best a D. H. S. nine has played in a number of years. Six games are scheduled as the MESSENGER goes to press, they being scheduled for the month of April. The schedule as far as completed, announced by Manager Massey, follows: April 5, Roxboro High School, at Durham; April 8, Roxboro High School, at Roxboro; April 11, Oxford High School, at Durham; April 15, Raleigh High School, at Raleigh; April 22, Oxford High School, at Oxford; April 25, Raleigh High School, at Durham.

Manager Massey announced also, that two trips would likely be scheduled by the team. It was proposed to take in Greensboro, Winston-Salem, High Point, and Danville on a western journey; while the eastern jaunt was expected to center around Kinston. It was probable, also, that most of the teams named would play return games in Durham.

The personnel of the team was not decided upon when the MESSENGER went to press, but many candidates answered Manager Massey's call for practice, several of whom were left over from the 1920 team. Old men who were expected to put up a hot fight for berths on the baseball team, were Manager Knox Massey, shortstop; Captain John White, Seaton Holt, and Charles Bishop, outfielders; Gordon Kirkland, second base; Otho Byrd, third base; and George Harris, catcher. Massey and Byrd are real "veterans," being members of the fast 1919 D. H. S. team which got in the scrap for the eastern championship. Good material was evident among the candidates and the development of a good pitching staff was all that apparently the team needed to be serious contenders for the state fight. Five promising hurlers reported for practice, however, and it is expected that a good staff will be selected from them.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

BERNICE CRUMPACKER MISS WAGNER MARION PIATT

Girls' Basketball

AMONG the many new activities introduced in the Durham High School during the school year 1920-21 was the organization of a girls' basketball team. This team under the capable coaching of Miss Wagner developed into a fast quint considering the fact that it was the first time the girls who made the team had ever played.

Early in the season the girls' athletic association elected as captain of the team Bernice Crumpacker and Marion Piatt as manager. At first the team was handicapped by the lack of a gym. Finally they succeeded in securing the armory court; later, however, the high school auditorium was converted into a very good court and the girls had a desirable place to practice as well as a place where return games might be played.

Owing to the lack of a place to play the first two games were played away from home. The first of these, the game with Burlington, resulted in a 22–15 victory for the Burlington team. The second game of the season, played at Winston-Salem, also was a loss to the locals by a 15–10 score. Then Burlington and Hillsboro were defeated here by 22–16 and 17–15 scores, respectively. Next the Winston girls again beat our girls by the score of 16–11. This game was played here. Our team then journeyed to Raleigh, only to be defeated by a score of 21–17 mainly because of hard luck and a strange court. We annexed another victory when our team beat West Durham by a score of 25–15. The last game of the season, played at Hillsboro, resulted in a 20–6 decision for the opposing team due to the absence of one of Durham's regular forwards.

Taken as a whole the first season may be looked upon as a success. Although we won only three games out of eight the results of the season are looked upon as being an exceptional one for girls' athletics. The members of the squad were Bernice Crumpacker and Marion Piatt, forwards; Louise Bullington, center, and Sarah Mason and Vivian Moize, guards. The subs were Dorothy Wilson, Mary Crumpacker, Evelyn Knight, Annie Partin, Mona Shipp, and Ruth Miles.

"That's Our Boy"

Every parent exults in the accomplishments of his boy — or his girl.

But probably there is nothing that so thrills the father and mother as does the graduation of the child from high school.

A high school education is foundation — it is the basis on which should be built such technical preparation as will enable the boy or girl to fill a useful place in some sphere of the world's activity.

So we extend a most cordial and earnest invitation to Durham High School graduates to enter our school; first because they make superior students, and second because they make superior employees.

There will be thousands of high school graduates this summer who will not want to waste their time — who will want to begin their training courses immediately, and to these ambitious young people we open our doors and assure them that every minute of their time spent with us will be spent both pleasantly and profitably.

Editor's Note

Goodbye
We've Done Our Darndest!

MOST "GRACIOUS READER," now that you have perused this book from cover to cover, digested period by period its contents, gloated over the many mistakes, exclaimed with fiendish joy at each new discovery of incorrectness; now that you have smacked your lips in greatest gusto over the incompleteness of this volume, let us, the Editors, just a word in parting, say:

In the beginning, when the publication of this volume was but a hazy ambition, we were confronted by the problem of working without a precedent upon which to base any plans. Furthermore, all the schools with the exception of one of whom we asked advice, seemed unable to give us any assistance. This exception was Greensboro High School, and we wish to thank Mr. Bertram Brown for his valuable advice.

As we continued to "break ground" many unforeseen difficulties arose with which we were unable to cope. For his hearty cooperation and invaluable assistance we wish to thank Professor J. F. Smith, whose sound business sagacity and valuable counsel have been largely responsible for the solution of these problems.

DURHAM COUNTY LIBRARY

We continued until the critical period arrived—that of amassing the material. To Miss Eppler of the English Department we wish to extend our sincere thanks for the time and patience with which she criticized and corrected the jumbled mass of material we so blandly called "THE ANNUAL."

Last, but not least, we wish to say that we appreciate the suggestions made by Mr. Elmer M. Blacklock of Edwards & Broughton Printing Company.

Thus we reach the end of the chapter.
